Course Topics

The escalating cost of employee benefits was a topic of concern long before this current economic downturn. Executive compensation has become another topic of great scrutiny in the workplace. Although the job market is tight now, employers need to focus on retaining top performers when the current environment changes.

J. Renee Toadvine, Managing Shareholder at Littler Mendelson, P.C., will focus on the tough issues that human resources professionals are faced with today. Mr. Toadvine will give practical advice on identifying risks, cost-reduction opportunities and ways to retain your best talent with cost-neutral strategies.
